GOVT. OF INDIA, MIN. OF LABOUR, ADDRESSED TO THE LABOUR SECRETARIES OF ALL THE STATE GOVERNMENTS

SUB :—Enhancement of the term of office of the members of the Vigilance Committee from one year to two years—Amendments to Rules 3 and 4 of the Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Rules, 1976.

I am directed to say that on the recommendation of the 32nd Session of the Labour Ministers' Conference held in August, 1981, a working Group was appointed to look into the various amendments suggested by different State Governments, inter-alia, to the Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Act, 1976 and the Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Rules, 1976. The Working Group had recommended that the term of office of the members of the Vigilance Committees - both the District and sub-divisional level—which is at present one year be raised to two years by effecting an amendment to Rules 3 and 4 of the Bonded Labour System (Abolition) Rules, 1976. The recommendations of the working group were placed before the Labour Ministers' Conference held in September, 1982 and the Conference had endorsed the recommendations. In pursuance of the above decision, the term of office of the members of the Vigilance Committee - both District Vigilance Committee and Sub-Divisional Vigilance Committees has been enhanced from one year to two years, vide notification No. U 11016/5/81-BL (Vol. II) dated 12th March, 1983, a copy of which is enclosed for your information and necessary action.

Yours faithfully,
