

Jind DC cancelled licenses of seven brick kilns

TNN | Sep 22, 2017, 08.24 PM IST

CHANDIGARH: Deputy Commissioner, Jind, Amit Khatri has cancelled licenses of seven brick kilns in the district for not getting them renewed inspite of the directions issued in this regard.

An official spokesman of the District Administration said on Friday that these brick kilns had been issued notice earlier to get their license renewed, but they did not paid attention and their licenses were cancelled. He said that a chance was given to them to get their licenses renewed within given period of time still they did nothing to get their licenses renewed.

These brick kilns included Banarasi Das and Company in village Roopgarh, Kapil Muni Brick Kiln in village Bhana Brahmana, Jain Bricks Company in village Kandela, Durga Brick Kiln in village Anchra Khurd, Aggarwal Bricks Company in village Brahmanwas, Laxmi Brick Company in village Kharal and Om Brick Kiln in village Lajwana Kalan.

Apart from this, the Deputy Commissioner has constituted seven inspection teams to put a complete check on black marketing of domestic gas in the district.